

Canopy Class/History Talk Recap

On July 15 Mark Draeger gave a talk about the History of Radio in South Milwaukee.

And the final canopy talk on August 5 was a presentation by Bob Jelinek, director of the BE Museum.

All the canopy classes this year were a big hit with visitors.

But now we need suggestions for next year's talks. Is there something about South Milwaukee that you've always wondered about or wanted to know more about? Is there something you're passionate
