Events, Activities & Accomplishments—2023

Check out the newsletters link for more details

12 Saturday open houses including our 50th anniversary celebration

Open Doors South Milwaukee

Heritage Day Parade

New displays at the BE Museum Building including one tied into the book launch for Ben Tyjeski's book about Continental Faience & Tile Co. plus local photographers, Alfred Lawson and of course Christmas

The annual South Milwaukee Historical Society dinner will be returning this year on Thursday, September 28th. The event will be held at the Bucyrus Club.

The South Milwaukee Historical Society is the proud recipient of a Civic Grant funded by the Bucyrus Foundation.

Saturday, December 9, 2023

Canopy Class History Talks

10:30am to 11:30am at the museum

April 15—Soap Making April 29—Daffodil Walk—*held off site May 13—Loretta's Field—History & Future plans July 1—Wingfoots— Housing for WWII Veterans July 15—South Milwaukee Radio History August 5—Bucyrus Erie-The Factory Changes Gears for War Join us at the museum for one or all of these brief talks held under the canopy in the backyardweather permitting! Talks will move indoors in bad weather and the museum will be open to tour for an hour after the talk.

* Join our own Lois Schreiter for a guided tour of her park-like back yard to check out thousands of daffodils and other spring blooms. Come prepared to do a lot of walking in possibly muddy areas. It will be worth it!! (104 Brookdale Drive in South Milwaukee)

NEWSPAPER DIGITIZATION PROJECT-FINAL REPORT

Beginning in 2024, membership fees are going up

Here's a closer look at the job JW Kolb did on the tree trimming

The Historical Society now has it's own phone number!! You can call & leave